Maitre D’s Special Reserve

WHITE WINE

34. SILVERADO, SAUVIGNON BLANC  Napa Valley
   These vineyards are owned by Ron Miller (former president of Disney Productions) and Diane Disney Miller (Walt Disney’s eldest daughter). Exceptional care is taken to produce a fruit forward, crisp example of this varietal.

49. PINOT GRIGIO, SANTA MARGHERITA  Veneto
   This Italian favorite was discovered in 1961 by a young winemaker from the Santa Margherita winery. He decided to use the white wine vinification techniques used to produce French Champagne on their best Pinot Grigio grapes.

61. CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET  Côte de Beaune
   Located in the south of the Côte de Beaune France, Chassagne-Montrachet is one of the five villages giving the “Côte des Blancs” its worldwide prestige. This beautiful white Burgundy hails from the Chardonnay grape.

4. MOËT & CHANDON, DOM PERIGNON  Epernay
   Dom Perignon is named after the famous French monk who is credited with inventing and developing Champagne as we know it today. Dom Perignon is probably the most famous Champagne of all and is of exceptional quality.

RED WINE

122. SEGESIO, OLD VINE ZINAFANDEL  Sonoma
   Zinfandel is classified as a native American grape variety. Seghesio Old Vine is made from grapes grown on over 90-year-old vines and regularly featured among Wine Spectator’s “Top 100 Wines.”

81. DON MELCHOR  Puente Alto
   More than 100 years ago, Don Melchor de Concha y Toro founded Viña Concha y Toro with his wife Emiliana Subercaseaux. Don Melchor’s favorite anecdote was to name his cellar - The Devil’s Wine Cellar (Casillero Del Diablo). Don Melchor’s wish was to keep his choicest wines from prying eyes and lips, as well as the temptation to steal, by spreading the word that the devil himself dwelled in the cellar. The wine, named in honor of its founder, is regularly featured in Wine Spectator’s “Top 100 Wines.”

95. DUCKHORN PARADUXX  Napa Valley
   Since Duckhorn Paraduxx’s premier release in 1994, the vineyard has taken great care in commissioning a different artist for each vintage. The original works, are transformed into the well-known stamp labels that depict a pair of ducks on each bottle.

142. ORNELLAIA  Tuscana
   Marchese Lodovico Antinori’s dream was to create a truly exceptional wine and in 2001 his dream was fulfilled when Wine Spectator honored it as being the #1 wine in the world. This is an exceptional value for one of the most prestigious wines in the world.

82. CAYMUS VINEYARDS SPECIAL SELECTION  Napa Valley
   Since its founding in 1972, the Wagner family have focused the vineyard’s attention, almost solely, on the production of Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon. The Caymus Vineyards “Special Selection” is only produced in vintages that Chuck Wagner feels are truly exceptional and appropriate for this bottling.

96. OPUS 1, MONDAVI-ROTHSCHILD  Napa Valley
   A much sought-after premier Califernian wine. Opus One is made in the best of French traditions, through a joint venture between Robert Mondavi and Baron Philippe de Rothschild - and its fame speaks for itself.
Blush/Rosé Wine

2  HEIDSIECK & CO. MONOPOLE BLUE  Reims
One of the oldest and most exclusive Champagne Houses of all time.

3  VEUVE CLICQUOT, BRUT  Reims
Fine balance of fruity aromas from the grape varieties in conjunction with toasty aromas originating from traditional bottle ageing.

4  MOËT & CHANDON, DOM PERIGNON  Epernay
Classic, refined aristocrat of French Champagnes.

White Wine

Chardonnay

6  KORBEL, BRUT  Sonoma
Dry Californian sparkling wine produced using the classic méthode champenoise bottle fermentation process.

7  MARTINI & ROSSI, ASTI SPUMANTE  Asti
Pleasantly sweet and slightly sparkling.

8  KORBEL ROSÉ  Sonoma
A bright rosé sparkling wine with flavors of strawberry, cherry and melon.

9  DOMAINE CHANDON, BRUT CUVÉE  Napa Valley
Dry and delicate with crisp character.

11  CARPENÈ MALVOLTI, PROSECCO  Veneto
Lightly sparkling, rich in citrus fruit flavors.
